GERMANS FAIL TO MAKE GAINS

Teutons Continue Ineffectual Assaults on Suburbs of Arras.

HEAVY FALL OF SNOW

Wounded Arriving Inside French Lines More Seriously Hurt Than Those Heretofore Treated.

Paris Nov. 3—Confidence s growing here that the east offensive movement of the Germans in Begium where b they hope to gain a clear route to the French channel ports will fail. All reports here are that the allies have successfully withstood repeated and violent attacks.

Paris, Nov. 3—The Germans continued their night assaults on the Arras suburbs to the westward of Lille and along the Belgian front throughout last night without material gains. The fighting, according to the information reaching military headquarters here, is confined at present to certain selected points on the battle line. Elsewhere the Germans seem to be waiting for the arrival of re-enforcements, which are understood here to be en route.

Great activity is reported on the part of the extreme left of the German center in the region of Verdun. Additional troops are being brought up and the German commandant is plainly endeavoring to break through the heavy curtain of French infantry which is screening the Verdun fortifications and which up to the present time has frustrated every effort on the part of the Germans to gain ground. It is known that the French forces in this vicinity have been heavily re-enforced and severe fighting can be expected in this vicinity for some time to come.

In Alsace-Lorraine and the Vosges the progress of the campaign has been seriously interfered with by a heavy fall of snow. Despite this fact, it is officially declared that the French continue to make material progress.

Because of the large number of wounded arriving here from the battlegrounds in the north many of the slightly wounded who have been in the military and emergency hospitals, have been transferred to the south to make room

The wounded now arriving are far more seriously hurt than were the average in the early stages of the war. Most of those who were injured by shrapnel are in a serious condition and there is a growing percentage of tetenus cases. This is due to the lack of antiteetnus serum and to the fact that the emergency hospital corps attaches at the front are overtaxed. Nurses and additional doctors are badly needed.

Hundreds of those wounded are also suffering from bayonet wounds, mostly in the body. The German troos who have been operatng in northern France and Belgium have been far more efficient in the use of bayonets than those engaged in the earlier battles, and the wounds they inflict are extremely dangerous

TURKEY WOULD APOLOGIZE

London Nov. 3—The grand vizier of Turkey has apologized on behalf of his government for the warlike operations of the Turkish fleet under German commanders in the Black Sea, but it was stated authoritatively this evening that the porte will have to go very much farther than this before the powers of the triple entente will agree to resume friendly relations with the Ottoman government.

It was disclosed in a statement issued by the French government this evening that Turkey in reply to a note presented by Russia, France, and England on Friday last, agreed to recall her fleet from the Black Sea, but refused to dismiss the German officers from her ships, and that as it was believed she could not maintain a passive attitude without doing this the Ambassador of the entente powers demanded their passports and left Turkey.

NEWS OF THE DAY

A dispatch from Amsterdam says that German 42-centimeter guns have been placed on Borkum Island, in the North Sea.

The entire North Sea has been declared a military area, and merchant vessels entering it will be exposed to the gravest dangers from the mines which it has been necessary to lay, and from the warships which are watching vigilantly by night and day for suspicious craft.

The backbone of the rebellion in South Africa seems to be broken. Col. Maritz's commander in northern cape province has been completely defeated. Several of the raiders and most of their men have been captured. General Beyers is in flight and General de Wet has opened negotiations for surrender, it is said.

Official dispatches received from the American legation at Peking reported that the flood in the Haul River district, in China, was spreading, and that 1,000,000 people were affected by it.

Clifford Clark, piloting a joy-riding automobile, is dead and Miss Genevieve Graham, Miss Leonora Rickard and Frank Graham, all of Lafayette Ind., are in a serious condition as the result of their car going over a curb.

Mrs. John Schuler, of Saginaw Mich., was killed, her daughter, Mrs. Tracy Hubbard, seriously hurt and four other persons injured in an automobile accident late Sunday night near Millington, Mich.

Roy Hill, South Bend, Ind., motorcycle racer, and Mrs. Olga Jackson aged seventeen, were instantly killed late Sunday night when an automobile in which they were riding upset four miles north of Warsaw.

Twenty-one indictments against directors of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad during the period in which the Interstate Commerce Commission has held that the road was looted, were returned by the Federal grand jury in New York Yesterday.

The directors are charged with violation of the anti-trust law in having "combined and conspired together with numerous other persons to monopolize commerce consisting of transportation business."

Three men lost their lives in a fire which damaged the Industrial Home of the Volunteers of America at Columbus, Ohio. More than a score of lodgers who were in the building when the alarm was sounded, escaped uninjured.

Frank Blakeney died in a hospital at Bellaire, Ohio, yesterday, and physicians said his son, Frank would not recover. The men were shot Sunday while quarreling with Frank Long, a farmer, over the division of crops they had assisted in gathering on Long's farm. Long was arrested.

DISPOSITION OF PRISONERS

Nearly Half a Million Taken Since War Began.

London, Nov. 3.—Chandler Anderson, formerly counselor of the State Department, now attached to the American embassy, went to Berlin today to discuss with authorities there arrangements for treatment of British prisoners here and elsewhere.

Official advices show Germany now has 250,000 prisoners, including many thousands of civilians arrested in Belgium and France and taken back to Germany to prevent their participation in the war. France has more than 10,000, including civilians and military. England detains 20,000 civilians and several thousand military. These numbers naturally will grow as the war proceeds.

Mr. Anderson has been discussing the matter with the British government, and carries its views to Berlin. An effort will be made to reach an agreement between the two countries which, if made, doubtless will be extended to all belligerent countries for the payment of the maintenance of prisoners, including clothing, food, and compensation at the end of the war.

CHARGE D'AFFAIRES LEAVES PETROGRAD

Russa Emphatically Rejects Turkish Proposal of Apologies

BEY IS ASSAULTED.

All Turks Required to Leave Czar's Territory in a Week—Black Sea Fleet Ready to Fight.

Petrograd, Nov. 3.—Chrage d'Affaires Fareddin Bey, with the entire staff of the Turkish embassy left today for Finland This action followed the emphatic rejection of the partial apology offered by the Turkish government for Turkey's warlike acts.

There was a sensational incident in connection with the departure. The embassy staff employes demanded payment of their wages, which were four months in arrears.

Fareddin Bey declared he had no money. The staff still insisted. Then the charge declared he would pay just as soon as the Turkish fleet took Odessa.

This enraged the servants, who were Russians, and they assaulted the Turkish representative, one of them striking him a violent blow on the jaw.

Fareddin Bey raised a cry for police assistance, but the police refused to respond and he was finally protected by members of the embassy staff.

The authorities today announced that an imperial decree has been issued ordering the expulsion of all Turks from Russian territory within a week.

The entire Black Sea fleet was reported today to have been concentrated at an agreed rendezvous where it awaits the attack of the Turkish fleet. Although the great battle cruiser Goeben gives the Turks an apparent advantage there is a disposition here to believe that the Goeben is much over-rated. Her turrets are said to catch and interfere with the proper firing of her guns, and a small projectile from the Sebastopol forts is declared to have damaged one of them materially.

It is understood that only a small proportion of her original German crew remain aboard as most of the men were distributed among other Turkish warships. The Turks, it is said, cannot handle the big warships to advantage, and high naval officials here insist that in the naval battle to come Russia must easily win

There is as yet no confirmation of reports that Turkish and Russian troops are already fighting in Caucasia.

Reports from the Austro-German front declare the Russians are continuing their offensive and that the Germans are unable to make a stand because of the lack of artillery, resulting from the miring of many guns in their rout in front of Warsaw

SCHOONER SINKS.

Crew of the Charles W. Church Rescued at Sea.

Newport News, Va., Nov. 3.—Captain A. E. Burt and the crew of eight men of the American schooner Charles W. Church were rescued by ythe Norweigian steamer Belridge when the schooner foundered, 456 miles southeast of Cape Henry, Saturday. All of the men arrived here today on the Belridge.

The Charles W. Church left here, coal-laden, for New London, October 19. She encountered stormy weather and leaks were discovered Monday. The members of the crew were continuously at the pumps from that day until the Belridge effected their rescue. The schooner went down a short while after the men were taken from her.

Salt Water Tailors, White Perch, Large Spots, Black Bass, Rock Fish, Croakers, and Salt Water Trout, will be for sale the balance of the week by Geo. E. Price and Company.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.

Delegates to State Convention at Newport News Submit Reports.

R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans met last night when the delegates to the recent state convention held at Newport News last week made their report.

A committee, consisting of Edgar Wurfield, Sr., and G. William Ramsay, was appointed to secure speakers for the annual banquet of the camp to be held on Lee's birthday, next January.

The Rev. J. W. Duffey, chaplain of the camp, gave an interesting talk of his experiences in the war. It was decided that the next meeting of the camp would be open to the public. Captain J. D. Fauntleroy, U. S. A., wil give a talk on the Philippines.

HOME DEPARTMENTS.

Representatives of Sunday Schools of City Hold All-Day Session.

Repressentatives of the home departments of all the Sunday Schools of Alexandria are holding an all-day session today in the auditorium of the Washington Street Methodist Episcopal Church South. The meeting is under the auspices of the Home Department Association, which has for its object the creating of interest in the study of the Bible in the homes.

The conference was called to order at 11 o'clock with 50 representatives present, including the superintendents of many of the Sunday Schools and a number of the pastors of the city. From 12:30 to 1:30 o'clock luncheon was served and an afternoon session was held.

Among those on the program for addresses were the Rev. J. W. Duffey, pastor of the Washington Street Methodist Church; the Rev. C. R. Strausburg, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, the Rev. G. A. Luttrell, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church, the Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and the Rev. John L. Allison, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church.

RUSSIA'S MILLIONS

Constant Supply of Fresh Soliders Constitutes Puzzle for German Officers.

Petrograd, Nov. 3.—Military experts believe little more will be accomplished by either the Russian or Austr-German armies before the winter sets in. The snowstorms that began in East Prussia and then spread southward to Central Poland have now extended to the border of Galicia. Considerable snow has also fallen in the foothills of the Carpathians, and it is expected that within a short time heavy blizzards will be sweeping the Galacian plains.

All the Russian troops now being sent to the front are equipped for a winter campaign. Those who were sent out with lighter clothing are being refitted as rapidly as possible

It is expected that by the time the spring fighting opens Russia will have 8,000,000 men in the field. The advantage of the great Russian reserves, in the conflict with Germany is thus commented on by the military experts of the Bourse Gazette, who are now at the front.

"The greatest surprise the German have met is that they find themselves continually opposed by French troops who display the greatest energy and enthusiasm. This is because tactics, larger reserves are held in readiness at critical points.

"Regiments are frequently shifted and the men are not left on the firing line long enough to become stale or exhausted.

"The vast force of Russia of 8,000,000 men will thus have a marked influence on the conflict. In fact it is already being felt in he present campaign."

German claims that cholera and dysentery has broken out in the Russian army are officially denied.

USING AMERICAN ARMS

New York, Nov. 3—European soldiers fighting the battles of the Kaiser, and the Czar, the President and the Kings are using instruments of American invention, or, at least arms which had their origin in the United States and which in some cases, have been improved abroad.

TURKISH TROOPS ENGAGE IN FIGHT

Efforts of Porte to Postpone Day of Reckoning are Failures.

ACTION OF POWERS.

Not the Slightest Belief That The Sultan Will Comply with Terms of England's Ulimatum.

London, Nov. 3.—With Turkey making every effort through neutral powers to persuade the allies to accept her apology and avert war, there comes an official announcement from Vienna that Russian and Turkish troops are fighting at Trebizond, on the southeast coast of the Black Sea.

The efforts of the Porte to postpone the day of reckoning will fail

The allied powers are absolutely agreed that the Turkish menace must be scotched. Promises are to be of no avail.

To the overtures already made, England, who by common consent, is now acting as the spokesman, has responded that only complete compliance with the oriignal ultimatum will prevent serious reprisals. This ultimatum included:

"Dismissal of all Germans from the military and naval service.

"Withdrawal of all Turkish warships from the Black Sea.

"Dismantling the cruisers Goeben and Breslau, and their interment until the end of the war.

"Complete and public apology by the Turkish government for the hostile acts of its warships.

"Promise of adequate indemnity.

"Assurances that violations of neutrality heretofore complained of will not be repeated in the future."

There is not the slightest belief that Turkey will yield to this extent. Her apology, previously tendered and declined, is described as a half-hearted affair. It represented the beliefs of the peace party in the Turkish cabinet and the Turkish ambassadors at Bordeaux and London. The latter officials realize that the allies are determined, if the war finally ends with them victor, that Turkey shall be dismembered for all time and that there shal be no more Turkey in Europe. It was because they emphasized this view to the Porte that the apology was tendered

Petrograd, Nov. 3.—An imperial manifesto dealing with the aggressions of the Turks and welcoming war with the Porte was issued today after having been signed by the Czar.

10,000 GERMANS ROUTED.

Armored Train Mowed Them Down in Vast Numbers.

London, Nov. 3.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail in Northern France, telegraphing under date of Saturday, relates how a force of 10,000 Germans was completely routed and scattered by an armored train. He says:

"The Germans had almost surrounded a British regiment, which fought on doggedly, though so vastly outnumbered. Suddenly an armored train shot up the railway line which the Britishers were holding. Right and left the train poured broadsides of machine gun fire, mowing down the Germans at every yard until the line on each side was covered with heaps of German dead. The rest fled precipitately and the British pursued."

ASKS $10,000 DAMAGES.

The firm of Charles H. Javins, fish and poultry dealers, of Washington, was sued for $10,000 by George W. Rhine yesterday in the District Supreme Court on account of personal injuries claimed to have been sustained by the plaintiff when he was struck by an automobile belonging to the defendant. Attorneys Chas. Bendheim and Leon Pretzfelder represent the plaintiff.

JAPAN STRIKES A WAR SNAG.

Has Been Two Month Endeavoring to Take Handful of Germans.

The progress of the war should be reassuring to the timid in this country who have been seeing ghosts of invasion and disaster on the Pacific Next time we are being stirred into a paroxyism over the prospect of losing the Philippines or having Honolulu wrested from us and seeing our own Pacific Coast States overrun by invaders from Japan, we can seek comfort in the progress of the present conflict in China. Japan, with all its navy the fifth among nations and its army, the seventh in strength, has been more than two months trying to take Tsing-Tau from a handful of Germans who are cut off from base of supplies or reinforcements.

When war was declared on Germany by the Japanese, the Kaiser announced that his little garrison in China would fight to the last. It seemed like condemning the men to swift and certain death or capture. Yet they have stood off the entire Japanese sea and land forces and are showing no signs of wavering. The incident is interesting to us because it demonstrates the folly of those who have been led to think the Jap is a superior being in war. His success against the Russians a few years ago created an impression both in Japan and this country that the Mikado's men are something superhuman that they could be depended upon to perform unheard-of feats of daring and military skill. — Indianapolis Star.

BELGIAN MILLIONS FACE STARVATION

Without Food or Shelter and Their Land Turned Into Desert.

SUCCOR IS HASTENED.

Adequate Relief Will Cost Five Million Dollars a Month Despite Rockefeller Relief Fund.

Brussels, Nov. 3.—Between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 Belgians have little or nothing to call "home." They are a people almost without a country.

Foodstuffs, forage, horses, cattle and automobiles not commandeered by the Belgian army when the war broke out. have been seized by the Germans, Practically every acre is now swept of everything valuable.

It is estimated that there are now 200,000 Belgians in England and 800,000 in Holland. The lowest estimate made here places the number of Belgian homes destroyed or so badly damaged as to be uninhabitable at 1,000,000. Malines, Louvain, Liege, Namur, Charleroi, Mons, Dinant and a score of smaller places have been so shattered by the artillery fire of the opposing armies that less than half of the normal population are decently sheltered.

A report from Limbourg says that supplies for the bread line have been exhausted and the feeding can be resumed only when American food arrives.

The seizure of cattle for the armies has left the country without beef, milk and cheese The supply of grain ordinarily imported from the United States and Canada has been cut off.

London, Nov. 3—The members of the American commission for relief in Belgium today pointed out that when American Ambassador Page communicated with the Rockefeller Foundation, conditions in Belgium had not been fully investigated. It was formerly believed that $1,000,000 a month would be sufficient. Complete investigation shows it is said, that $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 monthly will be the minimum amount required Consequently the commission feels that general American support will be necessary, as even the Rockfeller Foundation fund would be inadequate.

FEARFUL CARNAGE

River Chocked With Bodies of Men and Horses.

Paris Nov. 3—First-hand information of the stependous carnage which followed the opening of the sluices on the Yser River has just been made public. After eight days of the most sanguinary fighting in military history the river became choked with bodies, sunken barges, and dead horses. Three entire Wurttemburg bridges were able to cross the river, using the bodies of men and horses as their sole bridges.

When the infantry was on the western bank of the river the German artillery shelled the first line of trenches, and when no reply came therefrom, Wurttemburgers shouting their war cry charged the trenches It was only when they arrived at the breastworks that they discovered the Belgians had left, leaving behind their hats propped up on sticks.

Before the German were able to regain the river banks the Belgians opened the sluice and hundreds of tons of warter rushed upon the entrapped enemy carrying with it houses, uprooted trees, and thousands of dead bodies

Shrieking with terror, the Wurttemburgers attempted to flee, but when they were wading breast high in the water, French guns posted on a nearby slope, opened fire. With the exception of a mere handful who struggled to the Belgian lines, the entire brigade was wiped out by fire and water..

CONSTABLE HOLDS FORT

A. J. Payne Barricades Himself at His Home and Defies Deputy Sheriff and Posse.

As was stated in the Gazette, Officer Garvey, at the instance of the Fairfax authorities, on Saturday morning arrested Constable A. J. Payne on a warrant, sworn out before Justice Troth on the charge of removing a cord of wood from the lands of John West and J. N. Gibbs. West had come upon Payne while he was engaged in taking the wood.

Payne gave bail for his appearance before Justice Troth yesterday, former Judge J. K. M. Norton becoming his surety.

Payne came before Jusitce Troth last night, and after the evidence was taken the justice held the accused for the grand jury.

Payne having promised to procure bail for his appearance before the Fairfax Court, was allowed to leave for that purpose. He failed, however, to reappear, and the hour having grown late, Deputy Sheriff Dove started after the delinquent. Payne who was at his home on the government reservation near Belvoir, refused to come out. He was armed and defied the deputy sheriff, who subsequently summoned a posse and besieged the constable. About fifty persons formed the party led by the sheriff, but Payne kept them off throughout the night, alleging that he could not be arrested on the reservation.

Payne remained in the house all night, and this morning left, proceeding toward this city. He met several members of the posse on the road. They were all armed, but made no attempt to arrest Payne, who passed them smiling.

It was reported in Alexandria this morning that many shots were fired by the besiegers and the besieged during last night. Such, however, was not the case, although there was considerable excitement.

During the afternoon Payne appeared in Alexandria. He had charge of a two-horse wagon. In a conversation with a representative of the Gazette he emphatically denied the charge aleged against him, that is that he was engaged in stealing wood. He said he paid $1.50 on a cord of wood, valued at $2, and was engaged in removing the same when he was observed and the charge made against him. He said he would give the required bond of $300 this evening.

ELOPEMENTS.

Miss Lillian Adams, of Falls Church, Va., left her home early yesterday morning to help push the automobile of Crandall Mackey, Jr., away from in front of the house so the explosions of the gasoline in starting would not awaken her parents. Then she rode to Baltimore with R. E. Woods, of Fort Myer, Va., where they were married. Telephoning to the folks at home they received forgiveness and returned.

Norman Dunbar Brooke and Miss Harriett Pruitt, both of Washington, first went to a newspaper office with the particulars of their elopement before they went to Rockville to be married by the Rev. Samuel R. White. Miss Pruitt used her father's automobile, for her parent is away on a hunting trip.

Polls were opened in Alexandria at sunrise this morning at the following places:

First ward, Armory Hall.

Second ward, north Royal street, adjoining old City Hotel.

Third ward, Odd Fellows' Hall.

Fourth ward, Friendship Engine house.

The voting has been spirited, although tranquil conditions have prevailed at and near the polls. The republicans have worked earnestly in endeavors to cut down the vote of Hon. C. C. Carlin, the present democratic representative in Congress, who is opposed by Joseph L. Crupper, republican. James E. Johnsotn is the prohibition and progressive candidate, and Milton Fling is representing the socialistic element.

In accordance with the law, the saloons of the city have been closed, as have also the banks as it is a legal holiday.

The friends of Messrs. Carlin and Crupper have been active, and both sides are hoping a large vote will be cast before the polls shall have been closed at 5:01 this evening. The other candidates and their friends have made but little effort to marshal their adherents.

The vote at 3 o'clock this afternoon was as follows:

First Ward	268
Second Ward	278
Third Ward	275
Fourth Ward	253
TOTAL	1074

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. They don't injure one so they take strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids.

It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "foggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. At 10 and 25c per box. All druggists.

THE CROSS AND THE CRESCENT.

Eleven nations are now at war, and there is reason to believe the number will soon reach fourteen. Turkey has sent troops into Egypt, over which Great Britain has exercised suzerainty since the early part of the eighties when the Egyptians, after having floated a loan in England for internal improvements, refused to pay interest on the bonds. Alexandria was bombarded and the land of the Pharaohs compelled to assume the debt which had been negotiated. Turkey now pretends to come to the rescue of the Khedive, whom the Sublime Porte thinks has not been treated properly by England. The main object, however, it is believed is to stir up a holy war in which scenes enacted by Mahomet centuries ago may be reproduced.

Yussef Bey, special Turkish ambassador at Constantinople, said Sunday in a speech at Berlin that 25,000,000 Turks, 300,000,000 Mahometans and the entire Islamic world will rise and array themselves on the side of Germany.

According to dispatches, the great bulk of the people of the East Indies have no desire to enter into this crusade, but will remain loyal to Great Britain.

It is charged that Germany is responsible for this attempt to get Moslems and Christians to cross swords, the outcome of which is viewed with anxiety now that a wholesale European conflict is raging. Heretofore the more powerful nations could repress Mahometan dreams, but the Porte may avail itself of present conditions to cause much trobule.

According to today's dispatches, the sober element at Constantinople do not want war, and attempts are being made to thwart the course of the more radical Moslems. The Russian ambassador has been asked if an apology for the acts of the Porte in the Black Sea will be sufficient. The Turkish officials have been told that no propositions for peace will be entertained until the German officers and sailors now in the service of Turkey shall have been dismissed and the two German cruisers now flying the crescent shall have been dismantled and interned. Germany will doubtless opose earnestly such a measure, and the allies will move on Turkey.

WANTS U. S TO ENTER CONFLICT.

So much is at stake for civilization in this war that Germany must not be allowed to win it and that it is necessary for the United States to enter the conflict on the side of the allies, is the assertion made by Professor George Burton Adams, of Yale, who has just returned to England after several months in Italy.

But Professor Adams does not think it likely that Germany will win. On the contrary, he is inclined to believe that the Germans have already spent their strength in two great attempts on the east and the west to crush the allies and have failed in both. He says that, judging from information from all available sources, there are not enough soldiers in Germany to strengthen either wing sufficiently to bring about a final decision in the Kaiser's favor.

This, he maintains, places Italy in a position where, if she enters the war now on the allies' side, she would be a deciding factor and, as Turkey has chosen to become embroiled, it would be little surprising if Italy soon joined the allies. Professor Adams among other things, says:

"Germany must be defeated in this war. If it comes to the point, then it is necessary for the United States to aid the allies to the end that they should win, then I hope it will be done. She is opposed to everything for which we stand, and our turn would be next if Germany were successful."

Prof. Adams is the first American of any prominence who has seen any reason why the United States should enter a conflict three thousand miles from her shores. The great mass of the people of the country realize the wisdom of George Washington when he warned the young republic to steer clear of foreign entanglements.

The canal has been under guard of Dominion troops since the outbreak of the war.

Repetition of the Disaster of 1906 is Feared.

RADICAL CHANGE.

Tax Commission Votes in Favor of New System of Railroad Taxation.

Richmond, Nov. 3.—Important changes in the system of taxation of the railroads of the State are contemplated in the report which was adopted Friday by the State Tax Commission, when a session was held in the office of the clerk of the Senate. All of the members were in attendance.

The commission ordered that a bulletin setting forth the changes shall be prepared and handed to the press within the next few days. That the recommendations of the commission mean an increase in the revenues to the counties and cities, with a proper equalization of the tax, can be inferred from a brief resume of the leading features of the report made today by Senator Buchanan.

Senator Buchanan prepared the following for publication:

"The proposed new scheme does away with the present 1 per cent tax on gross receipts as a franchise tax and provides that all railroads be assessed on an ad valorem basis as a going concern. The assessments are to include the value of the franchise. The assessments are to be made as at present by the State Corporation or by a State tax commission in case the Legislature shall create that department.

"The assessments are to be apportioned among the counties and cities, according to the value of the properties contained in the confines of each.

"The rolling stock tax is to be apportioned among the counties and cities on a mileage basis, and the Auditor of Public Accounts is to extend all taxes and to retain for the State 45 per cent of the gross taxes for State purposes, the remainder to be distributed among the counties and cities, according to the assessment.

"This system is recommended because of the inequalities now existing in the assessment of roads, growing largely out of the gross receipt tax which is now determined on a mileage basis, it being established that the earnings of some of the roads are much larger in Virginia than on the lines outside of the State.

"The inequalities in the assessment of railroad properties are about as great as the inequalities that now obtain in the assessments on real estate in various sections of the State."

Senator Buchanan then went on to recount that the gross receipts of roads which are, in some cases, almost parallel, vary widely, and it is to this discovery that the demand for a change in the system of taxation is demanded.

Asked if the proposed change would not serve to increase the tax on the properties of the railroads, Senator Buchanan said that he expected that such would be the case, but he was not prepared to say what roads would feel the effects of the increase or to state just what the amount of additional revenue would be.

BAR OF SOAP FOR DICE

Jailer of Henrico County Meets Discouragement in Efforts at Reform

Richmond, Nov. 3.—Dice, playing cards and gambling devices of every description have been taken from prisoners in Henrico County Jail, and they have been warned that games of chance will no longer be countenanced in the prison cells. Jailer R. C. Garnett thinks gambling is one of the greatest evils of the present time, and he is determined to stop it—in the jail at least. His task is a hard one, he confessed yesterday.

In the jail are many who have long followed, with little success, the path of the fickle goddess, Chance. Love of the game is life to them. Some of these prisoners are "professionals" and given a pair of dice they can "shoot the natural" or "roll box cars" with apparent ease, every time the "bones roll." The Jailer thinks it was their ability to pull such stunts that made them what they are today, and his idea is to do some reform work in a small way. He says it is all very discouraging though.

A group of negro prisoners were gathered about in a circle in one of the cells yesterday afternoon when the jailer came to the grated door. Apparently they were greatly interested. When he asked them what they were doing they all looked guilty and said in concert, "Nothing." The jailer knew in reason the prisoners had no dice or cards, but everything indicated that a game was on. He went in and had a look. A pair of dice, cleverly carved from a bar of soap, is what he found. With his heel the jailer crushed the imitation cubes as if they had been serpents.

IN HANDS OF WRECKERS

Steamer Capital City is being Demolished.

Having completed her days of usefulness as a passenger and freight carrying steamer on the Potomac river, the old sidewheel steamer Capital City, until about two years ago in active service on the river, is being wrecked for the material of value in her and it is probable her hull will be converted into a houseboat or lighter. The old steamer, which had been lying idle for some time, was recently purchased by G. W. Forsberg from the Potomac and Chesapeake Steamboat Company, and he is having her torn to pieces. The Capital City was built at Camden, N. J., in 1875, by the old Inland and Seaboard Coasting Company for the Potomac river service, and was named the John W. Thompson.

After running on the river for several years the company owning her went out of business, and the Thompson was purchased by the late E. S. Randall who had her rebuilt and renamed Harry Randall. For many year she ran on the Mattox creek route, and carried excursionists to River View and Colonial Beach. After the death of Capt. Randall, six years ago the Randall was purchased by the Potomac and Chesapeake Company, which renamed her the Capital City, and until placed out of service she ran between Washington this city, Nomini and Lower Machodoc creeks in Virginia and the Wicomico river in Maryland.

MINES IN THE ATLANTIC

Steamer Route Between New York And Liverpool Menaced.

London, Nov. 3—The official press bureau of the admiralty states that during the last week the Germans have scattered mines indiscriminately in the open sea along the main trade route between America and Liverpool.

The admiralty's statement continues:

"Peaceful merchant ships already have been blown up by this agency. The White Star Liner Oympic escaped disaster through pure luck, and but for warning given by British cruisers other British and Neutral passenger vessels undoubtedly would have been destroyed.

"These mines cannot have been laid by a German warship; they have been laid by some merchant vessel flying a neutral flag which came along the trade route as if for purpose of peaceful commerce and, while profiting to the fullest extent from the immunity enjoyed by neutral merchant ships, wantonly and recklessly endangered the lives of all who travel by sea, regardless of character

Sure Indications of Lung Trouble

Among the indications of threatened Lung Trouble are a continued cough, fever and night sweats. A change of climate often helps, but it seems that something more is needed to stop the cough and sweats and arrest the progress of disease. Eckman's Alterative, after many years of use, is known to be most beneficial in bringing about relief, in many cases complete recoveries. Investigate this case:— Schell City, Mo.

"Gentlemen: I had a terrible cough, night sweats and pleurisy in my lungs. A man who heard me coughing advised me to take your Alterative. I paid no attention to him then. I got so bad the doctor said I should go to Wyoming. I did, and when I got there I steadily grew worse. Then I remembered what had been told me about your medicine. I began taking it, with no faith whatever, but before I had taken three bottles, I could eat anything. Fever and night-sweats stopped and for over a year I have been well and in better health than I ever was."

(Affidavit). W. F. BOMAR.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists
